Introduction

The local elections held on 23 May 2014 were the first to take place following the enactment of the Local Government Reform Act 2014. The Act brought into effect changes in local government structures, including the establishment of new merged authorities in Limerick, Tipperary and Waterford and the introduction of a new system of sub-county governance which were brought into effect from 1 June 2014. As part of the preparatory work for these changes, statutory orders were made specifying revised local electoral areas and the number of members to be elected for each area in cities, counties and cities and counties. The orders gave effect to the recommendations in the independent Local Electoral Area Boundary Committee Report published in May 2013 and were the basis on which the 2014 local elections were held.

Because of the role local authorities play, the range of matters for which they are responsible and their proximity to local communities, local government has a more immediate effect on the day-to-day lives of citizens than most other sectors of public administration. Local government represents and serves the citizen. Uniquely, it is given a franchise by all residents in Ireland and this publication is the outcome of that exercise.

The detailed results of the 2014 local elections held on Friday, 23 May 2014 are set out for each of the 137 local electoral areas in which elections were held to 31 local authorities. It contains statistics in relation to the number of seats, candidates and electors, the percentage of first preference votes for each political party and the number of seats obtained by each, the number of women who stood as candidates and the number of outgoing members at County and City level who were re-elected.

Right to vote at local elections

Every person aged 18 years and upwards, irrespective of nationality or citizenship, is entitled to be registered as a local government elector and to vote at local elections in the electoral area in which he or she ordinarily resides. The total number of persons entitled to vote at the 2014 local elections was 3,328,603.
